Weekly publication schedule for rapid response - booking & copy deadlines

The Friend is published weekly, dated the Friday of each week. We have short lead times and your advertisement can usually appear in the very next issue.

• Display

To guarantee space, bookings for Display advertisements should be made 10 days before the Friday of publication. It is often possible to accommodate Display ads at shorter notice, up to the Monday of the week of publication, but is subject to space. All copy is due by Monday morning.

• Classified

The copy date for Classified ads is usually Monday morning for that week's issue. It is often possible to accept copy on Monday afternoon, but is subject to space.

• Inserts

Appeal inserts usually need to be booked 10 to 12 weeks or more in advance. Other leaflets can usually be accepted at shorter notice subject to availability.

• Display

Boxed advertisements in a wide variety of sizes which can include logos, photographs and drawings; with text in a range of fonts and sizes. You buy the space and can put whatever you like in it - within reason! Ideal for recruitment, courses, events, campaigning, ethical investment, books...

• Inserts

Loose inserts can be the most effective communication tool for fundraising and campaigning; membership recruitment; ethical investment and mortgages; magazine subscriptions and more. Just look at the 2017-18 inserts on the back cover. We only take two inserts each week, of which one can be an appeal. This results in much better impact and improved response rates. And remember, 95% of circulation is by postal subscription, so your leaflet always gets delivered.
