SPIRIT-LED? FAITH AND ACTIVISM: A QUAKER PERSPECTIVE

ONLINE SESSION

There is a popular myth in Quaker settings of a divide between faith and activism. Are they really separate? How might Spirit fire up our commitment to social change and sustain us? This session explores how faith and activism can strengthen each other.

23 OCT - 11 DEC

£54

BECOMING FRIENDS

ONLINE COURSE

Becoming Friends aims to help provide the next stage of learning and support for newcomers who have started exploring Quakerism, whether by attending Quaker meetings online or in person, or those who are curious about taking this step.

£72

THE ROOTS OF THE QUAKER WAY

ONLINE COURSE

What were the religious roots of the Quaker way? How were early Friends influenced by their religious context? This course will explore the connections between Quakers and other radical religious groups from the Middle Ages to the English Revolution.

30 OCT - 4 DEC

£72

THE SHARED QUAKER STORY: SPIRIT, COMMUNITY AND SCRIPTURE

ONLINE COURSE

In this course, Benjamin Wood will draw on material from his recent book Living Fountain: Remembrances of Quaker Christianity to explore how Liberal Quakers can honour their uniquely Christian roots, while still valuing diversity of belief and language.

HOLDING IN THE LIGHT: WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

ONLINE SESSION

Quakers often talk about holding something or someone in the Light, or upholding a person or situation, when people in other religious traditions might talk about prayer or sending good thoughts or energy. What does it mean and why do Quakers say this?
