

Faith in Action grants available

Faith in Action grants are small pots of money for groups and individuals doing Quaker related work, activities and events that aim to have a positive impact for social change.

Applications for between £200 and £2,000 will be considered.

Faith in Action coordinators can support you with your application. We will be alongside you, connecting you to like-minded people and projects and supporting you to take more confident, effective and spiritually grounded action.

If a small amount of money could make a big difference to your action, apply now!

Applications are open from the start of May to the end of July.
