

Independent Director sought for Quiet Company Board

We are looking for an independent director to join the trading arm of Quakers in Britain, known as Quiet Company.

Quiet Company is based at Friends House in London and Swarthmoor Hall in Cumbria. Quiet Company supports Quakers in Britain in two main ways: making money to help the charity's valuable work, and by putting faith into action as a Quaker employer through its portfolio of conferencing, catering, retail, and holiday accommodation at the beautiful site of Swarthmoor Hall.

The board meets 5 times a year, mostly online, with an initial term of 3 years. If you'd like to help support a fast-paced and dynamic Quaker business, we'd welcome your interest.

The role would commence in January 2027, and we're asking for expressions of interest by 31 August 2026.

For an informal chat about the role, please contact Lisa San Martin, QC CEO, at LisaS@quaker.org.uk

Quiet
company