

EXPLORE REPARATION WITH WOODBROOKE

These courses are part of our ongoing work with Britain Yearly Meeting's Reparation Working Group. Together, we are exploring Quaker history and theology, including our involvement in enslavement and oppression, and the traditions of abolition, liberation and reparation. Come and learn, reflect and explore what reparation might mean for us today.

3 DEC - 17 DEC

Examining Our Past:
Historical Quaker
Theologies of Enslavement

ONLINE COURSE - PAY AS LED
In partnership with Quakers in Britain

TUES 19 JAN, 19:00-20:30

Truth-Telling as Reparative
Justice: The Haitian Revolution

ONLINE SESSION - PAY AS LED
In partnership with Quakers in Britain

28 JAN - 24 JUNE

Exploring Our Quaker
Roots: Moving Towards Repair

ONLINE COURSE - PAY AS LED
In partnership with Quakers in Britain

WED 3 MARCH, 13:30-16:30

Quakers and the Trafficking of Africans: Researching
Our Past

ONLINE SESSION - PAY AS LED
In partnership with Quakers in Britain

TUES 6 APRIL, 19:00-20:30

Quaker Connections to Chattel
Enslavement in Seventeenth-Century East London

ONLINE SESSION - PAY AS LED

THURS 22 APR, 10:00-11:30

Reparation: Voices from Kenyan Friends

ONLINE SESSION - PAY AS LED
In partnership with FWCC

FIND ALL OUR COURSES AND BOOK
YOUR PLACE ON OUR WEBSITE:
WOODBROOKE.ORG.UK/COURSES

