

Woodbrooke is recruiting a Programme Coordinator - Faith & Spirituality

This is an exciting role that provides the opportunity to contribute to our expanding vision to reach a global audience with new and innovative opportunities for learning.

You will have a strong knowledge and understanding of and sympathy with Quaker worship, practice and values and the skills to inspire, inform and educate. You will be able to coordinate programmes that illuminate Quaker worship and spirituality and enable people to explore and engage with worship practices, ministry and the variety of expressions of Quaker faith. You will coordinate and develop the programmes, deliver teaching, work with associate tutors to deliver courses, and oversee the development of resources.

Hours:	24 hours per week	Salary:	£36,265 (£24,867 pro rata)
Location:	Homebased working	Contract:	Permanent

For an informal discussion about this role please contact Rachael Swancott, Head of Community and Engagement, Rachael.swancott@woodbrooke.org.uk.

Closing date for applications: 5pm, Thursday 25 June | Interviews: Week of 20 July

For more information and to apply please see www.woodbrooke.org.uk/jobs

Woodbrooke has a commitment to equality, and we encourage and welcome applications for posts from all sections of society. We would like to receive applications from people who uphold Quaker values, whether or not they are Quakers.

WOODBROOKE

WWW.WOODBROOKE.ORG.UK